

Trainings & consultation

A variety of training topics can also be accessed through remote and online formats.

→ full-day & half-day trainings

Content is created and modified for district/SELPA needs. Reach out to discuss your needs and I will create a proposal for the district.

→ helping to ensure PSW fidelity with PSW Monthly

On-demand access to video trainings for beginning and intermediate PSW users. Plus, twice-monthly access to Jenny for office hours and case study walkthroughs!

→ PSW Leaders

Improve the internal capacity of your psychologists to train new hires. Five self-paced modules plus additional access to me every month for training questions.

→ online courses

On-demand and self-paced courses are available on a range of topics to assist school psychologists in expanding their learning. Contact Jenny directly with questions about setting up a purchase order.

→ facilitated online training modules

Creation of online training modules specific to your group's need that can be facilitated by someone from the district/SELPA to a large group. Remote consultation is available with facilitator(s) before and after the use of the online modules.

→ remote consultation

Jenny is also able to provide consultation directly with individual psychologists. This can be completed via email, phone, and/or Zoom.
